Introduction

The Policy defines the responsibility of IPS International (IPS) in respect of data protection and the collection and use of information.

IPS aims to ensure that all the personal data it holds about staff, learners, parents, visitors, Members and other individuals, is collected, stored and processed in accordance with the GDPR. This Policy applies to all personal data, regardless of whether it is in paper or electronic format.

This includes data about employees, suppliers, clients/customers, learners and others with whom IPS communicates. IPS will need personal information to identify learners for registration and exams and to comply with the eligibility requirements of government departments for funded training programmes.

In this Policy, all references to “we” and “our” refer to IPS, unless distinguished in the text.

Definitions

‘Personal Data’ is defined as information about a living individual, held either electronically or manually as an accessible record or records, from which the person can be identified.

Examples of personal data which may be used by IPS in its day to day activities include, names, addresses (email and property addresses), telephone numbers and other contact details, educational records, CVs, performance reviews, payroll information and images obtained through CCTV.

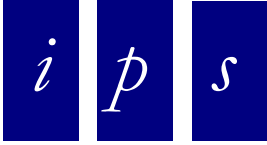

‘Data Processing’ is defined as the obtaining, recording, holding, organising, adapting, altering, retrieving, consulting, matching, transmitting, disseminating, making available, aligning, combining, blocking, erasing or destroying of data as defined above.

‘Data Subject’ is defined as a living person about whom data is processed.

‘Automated Data’ is personal data held on computer and automatically processed, such as automatic scoring, document image processing, CCTV or identity photos.

‘Manual Records’ are records containing personal data organised in such a way as a living individual may be identified, whether from those records alone or in combination with others.

‘Sensitive Personal Data’ is referred to in the GDPR as ‘special categories of personal data’ such as genetic data, biometric data, political views, race and ethnicity and where collected, should not be used unless strictly necessary.

Rationale

IPS is required to comply with the obligations and requirements set out in the GDPR and the Data Protection Act (DPA).

This Policy is intended to ensure that personal information is dealt with appropriately and in accordance with the legislation.

IPS requires all staff to comply with this Policy. Non-compliance puts data subjects, whose personal data is being processed, at risk. It also carries the risk of the imposition of significant civil and criminal sanctions for the individual and IPS. Consequently, any failure to comply with this Policy may lead to disciplinary action which could result in dismissal for gross misconduct. If a non-employee breaches this Policy, they may have their contract terminated with immediate effect.

Legislation and Guidance

This Policy meets the requirements of the:

- i. GDPR and is based on guidance published by the ICO and the ICO's code of best practice

The Policy also reflects the ICO's code of practice for the use of surveillance cameras and personal information.

Core Principles

The principles set out in the GDPR must be adhered to when processing personal data. The principles are as follows:

- i. Personal Data shall be processed fairly and lawfully.
- ii. Personal Data shall be obtained only for specified and lawful purposes and shall not be processed in a way that is incompatible with those purposes or in contradiction to the GDPR.
- iii. Personal Data shall be adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it is processed.
- iv. Personal Data shall be accurate and kept up to date.
- v. Personal Data shall be processed in accordance with the data subjects' rights.
- vi. Appropriate technical and organisational measures shall be taken against unauthorised or unlawful processing of personal data and against the accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to personal data.
- vii. Personal Data shall not be transferred outside of the EU except in circumstances defined in the Act and with approval from IPS Data Protection Officer.

The Data Controller

IPS processes personal data relating to learners, staff, visitors and others, and therefore is a data controller.

IPS is registered with the ICO as a data controller and will renew this registration annually, or as otherwise legally required.

Data Protection Officer (DPO):

Is responsible for overseeing the implementation of this Policy, monitoring our compliance with data protection law, and developing related policies and guidelines where applicable.

Is the first point of contact for individuals whose data IPS processes, and for the ICO.

Is contactable via telephone: 01634 540910.

All Staff are responsible for:

Collecting, storing and processing any personal data in accordance with this Policy.

Informing IPS of any changes to their personal data, such as a change of address.

Contacting the DPO in the following circumstances:

- i. With any questions about the operation of this Policy, data protection law, retaining personal data or keeping personal data secure.
- ii. If they have any concerns that this Policy is not being followed.
- iii. If they are unsure whether they have a lawful basis to use personal data in a particular way.
- iv. If they need to rely on or capture consent, deal with data protection rights invoked by an individual, or transfer personal data outside the European Economic Area.
- v. If there has been a data breach.
- vi. Whenever they are engaging in a new activity that may affect the privacy rights of individuals.
- vii. If they need help with any contracts or sharing personal data with third parties.

Information Security

IPS will use appropriate technical and organisational measures to keep personal information secure, to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage.

All staff are responsible for keeping information secure in accordance with the legislation.

IPS will develop, implement and maintain safeguards appropriate to its size, scope and business, its available resources, the amount of personal data that it owns or maintains on behalf of others and identified risks (including use of encryption and pseudonymisation where applicable). IPS will regularly evaluate and test the effectiveness of those safeguards to ensure security of processing.

Staff must guard against unlawful or unauthorised processing of personal data and against the accidental loss of, or damage to, personal data. Staff must exercise particular care in protecting sensitive personal data from loss and unauthorised access, use or disclosure.

	POL-IPS-014	Rev: 2.0	Valid until: 5 Jan 2024
	Data Protection GDPR Policy
Author or latest reviewer name	Kier Price/Lizzie White	Date: 6 th January 2023

Staff must follow all procedures and technologies put in place to maintain the security of all personal data from the point of collection to the point of destruction. Staff may only transfer personal data to third-party service providers who agree in writing to comply with the required policies and procedures and who agree to put adequate measures in place, as requested.

Staff must maintain data security by protecting the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the personal data, defined as follows:

- i. Confidentiality means that only people who have a need to know and are authorised to use the personal data can access it.
- ii. Integrity means that personal data is accurate and suitable for the purpose for which it is processed.
- iii. Availability means that authorised users can access the personal data when they need it for authorised purposes.

Staff must comply with and not attempt to circumvent the administrative, physical and technical safeguards IPS has implemented and maintains in accordance with the GDPR and DPA.

1.1 Where IPS uses external organisations to process personal information on its behalf, additional security arrangements need to be implemented in contracts with those organisations to safeguard the security of personal information. Contracts with external organisations must provide that:

- i. the organisation may only act on IPS's written instructions;
- ii. those processing data are subject to the duty of confidence;
- iii. appropriate measures are taken to ensure the security of processing;
- iv. the organisation will assist IPS in providing subject access and allowing individuals to exercise their rights in relation to data protection
- v. the organisation will delete or return all personal information to IPS as requested at the end of the contract
- vi. the organisation will submit to audits and inspections, provide IPS with whatever information it needs to ensure that they are both meeting their data protection obligations, and tell IPS immediately if it does something infringing data protection law.

Before any new agreement involving the processing of personal information by an external organisation is entered into, or an existing agreement is altered, the relevant staff must communicate with the DPO.

Collecting Personal Data - Lawfulness, Fairness and Transparency

We will only process personal data where we have one of six 'lawful bases' (legal reasons) to do so under data protection law:

- i. The data needs to be processed so that IPS can fulfil a contract with the individual, or the individual has asked IPS to take specific steps before entering into a contract;

	POL-IPS-014		Rev: 2.0	Valid until: 5 Jan 2024

- ii. The data needs to be processed so that IPS can comply with a legal obligation;
- iii. The data needs to be processed to ensure the vital interests of the individual e.g. to protect someone's life;
- iv. The data needs to be processed so that IPS, as a public authority, can perform a task in the public interest, and carry out its official functions;
- v. The data needs to be processed for the legitimate interests of IPS or a third party (provided the individual's rights and freedoms are not overridden);
- vi. The individual (or their parent/carer where appropriate) has freely given clear consent;

	Data Protection GDPR Policy
Author or latest reviewer name	Kier Price/Lizzie White		Date: 6 th January 2023
Authoriser name	QSIM		Date: 6 th January 2023

In respect of special categories of personal data, we will also meet one of the special category conditions for processing that data. These conditions are set out in the GDPR.

Limitation, Minimisation and Accuracy

We will only collect personal data for specified, explicit and legitimate reasons. It must not be further processed in any manner incompatible with those proposed.

If we want to use personal data for reasons other than those given when we first obtained it, we will inform the individuals concerned before we do so and seek consent where necessary.

- 1.2 Personal data must be adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which it processes. Staff may only process data when their role requires it. Staff must not process personal data for any reason unrelated to their role.
- 1.3 When staff no longer need the personal data they hold, they must ensure it is deleted or anonymised.

Sharing Personal Data

In the event of a requirement to share personal data with anyone else, circumstances that could impact on this could comprise of:

- i. an issue with a learner or parent/carer that puts the safety of our staff at risk;
- ii. the need to liaise with other agencies.

Our suppliers or contractors need data to enable us to provide services to our staff and learners; for example, Awarding Organisations. To provide safeguards, we will:

- i. Only appoint suppliers or contractors that can provide enough guarantees that they comply with data protection law;
- ii. Establish a data sharing agreement with the supplier or contractor, either in the contract or as a standalone agreement, to ensure the fair and lawful processing of any personal data we share.
- iii. Only share data that the supplier or contractor needs to carry out their service, and information necessary to keep them safe while working with us.

We will also share personal data with law enforcement and government bodies where we are legally required to do so, including for example:

- i. the prevention or detection of crime and/or fraud;
- ii. the apprehension or prosecution of offenders;
- iii. the assessment or collection of tax owed to HMRC;
- iv. in connection with legal proceedings;
- v. where the disclosure is required to satisfy our safeguarding obligations;

- vi. research and statistical purposes, as long as personal data is sufficiently anonymised, or consent has been provided.

We may also share personal data with emergency services and local authorities to help them to respond to an emergency that affects any of our pupils or staff.

Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with data protection law. The DPO is made aware of any need to transfer data before the transfer takes place, to ensure that it complies with the GDPR.

Subject Access Requests

Individuals have a right to make a ‘subject access request’ to gain access to personal information that IPS holds about them. This includes:

- i. confirmation that their personal data is being processed;
- ii. access to a copy of the data;
- iii. the purposes of the data processing;
- iv. the categories of personal data concerned;
- v. who the data has been, or will be, shared with;
- vi. how long the data will be stored for, or if this is not possible, the criteria used to determine this period;
- vii. the source of the data, if not the individual;
- viii. whether any automated decision-making is being applied to their data, and what the significance and consequences of this might be for the individual.

Subject access requests must be submitted in writing, by either letter, email or fax to the DPO. They should include:

- i. name of individual;
- ii. correspondence address;
- iii. contact number and email address;
- iv. details of the information requested.

If staff receive a subject access request, they must immediately forward it to the DPO.

Children aged 12 and above are generally regarded to be mature enough to understand their rights and the implications of a subject access request. Therefore, most subject access requests from parents or carers of learners of IPS may not be granted without the express permission of the learner. This is not a rule and a learner’s ability to understand their rights will always be judged on a case-by-case basis.

When responding to requests, we:

- i. may ask the individual to provide 2 forms of identification;
- ii. may contact the individual via phone to confirm the request was made;
- iii. will respond without delay and within 1 month of receipt of the request;

	Data Protection GDPR Policy
Author or latest reviewer name	Kier Price/Lizzie White		Date: 6 th January 2023
Authoriser name	QSIM		Date: 6 th January 2023

- iv. will provide the information free of charge (subject to reasonable judgements);
- v. may tell the individual we will comply within 3 months of receipt of the request, where a request is complex or numerous. We will inform the individual of this within 1 month and explain why the extension is necessary.

We will not disclose information if it:

- i. might cause serious harm to the physical or mental health of the pupil or another individual;

	POL-IPS-014	Rev: 2.0	Valid until: 5 Jan 2024
	Data Protection GDPR Policy
Author or latest reviewer name	Kier Price/Lizzie White	Date: 6 th January 2023

- ii. would reveal a risk of abuse, where the disclosure of that information would not be in the individual's best interests;
- iii. is given to a court in proceedings concerning the individual;
- iv. if the request is unfounded or excessive, we may refuse to act on it, or charge a reasonable fee that considers administrative costs.

A request will be deemed to be unfounded or excessive if it is repetitive or asks for further copies of the same information.

When we refuse a request, we will inform the individual to the reason for the refusal and that they have the right to complain to the ICO.

Other data protection rights of the individual - in addition to the right to make a subject access request, and to receive information when we are collecting their data about how we use and process it, individuals have the right to:

- i. Withdraw their consent to processing at any time.
- ii. Ask us to rectify, erase or restrict processing of their personal data, or object to the processing of it (in certain circumstances).
- iii. Prevent use of their personal data for direct marketing.
- iv. Challenge processing which has been justified based on public interest.
- v. Request a copy of agreements under which their personal data is transferred outside of the European Economic Area.
- vi. Object to decisions based solely on automated decision making or profiling (decisions taken with no human involvement that might negatively affect them).
- vii. Prevent processing that is likely to cause damage or distress.
- viii. Be notified of a data breach in certain circumstances.
- ix. Make a complaint to the ICO.
- x. Ask for their personal data to be transferred to a third party in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format (in certain circumstances).

Individuals should submit any request to exercise these rights to the DPO. If staff receive such a request, they must immediately forward it to the DPO.

CCTV

We use CCTV in various locations around IPS premises to ensure safety and security. IPS adheres to the ICO's code of practice for the use of CCTV.

There is no requirement to ask individuals' permission to use CCTV, but we make it clear when and where individuals are being recorded. Security cameras are clearly visible and accompanied by prominent signs explaining that CCTV is in use.

Any enquiries about the CCTV system should be directed to the Directors responsible for IT within IPS.

Photographs and Images

As part of IPS activities, we may take photographs and record images of individuals within our centre.

Unless prior consent has been obtained from learner/parents/staff, IPS will not utilise such images for publication or communication to external sources.

Data Protection by Design

We will put measures in place to show that we have integrated data protection into all of our data processing activities, including:

- i. Appointing a suitably qualified DPO, and ensuring they have the necessary resources to fulfil their duties and maintain their expert knowledge.
- ii. Only processing personal data that is necessary for each specific purpose of processing, and always in line with the data protection principles set out in relevant data protection law.
- iii. Completing privacy impact assessments where IPS's processing of personal data presents a high risk to the rights and freedoms of individuals and when new technologies.
- iv. Integrating data protection into internal documents including this Policy, any related Policies, documents and privacy notices.
- v. Regularly training members of staff on data protection law, this Policy, any related Policies, documents and any other data protection matters; we will also keep a record of the training which has been delivered.
- vi. Regularly conducting reviews and audits to test our privacy measures and make sure we are compliant.

Maintaining records of our processing activities, including:

- i. For the benefit of data subjects, making available the name and contact details of our College and DPO and all information we are required to share about how we use and process their personal data (via our privacy notices).
- ii. For all personal data that we hold, maintaining an internal record of the type of data, data subject, how and why we are using the data, any third-party recipients, how and why we are storing the data, retention periods and how we are keeping the data secure.
- iii.

Data Security and Storage of Records

We will protect personal data and keep it safe from unauthorised or unlawful access, alteration, processing or disclosure, and against accidental or unlawful loss, destruction or damage.

Personal data should not be retained for any longer than is necessary. The length of time data should be retained will depend on several circumstances including the reasons why personal data was obtained.

Paper-based records and portable electronic devices, such as laptops and hard drives that contain personal data are kept securely when not in use.

Papers containing confidential personal data must not be left on office and classroom desks, on staffroom tables, pinned to notice/display boards, or left anywhere else where there is general access.

Passwords are used to access IPS computers, laptops and other electronic devices. Staff and learners are reminded to change their passwords at regular intervals.

Access to USB storage is not allowed unless appropriate encryption software deemed is used to protect the device and its content.

Where we need to share personal data with a third party, we carry out due diligence and take reasonable steps to ensure it is stored securely and adequately protected.

Disposal of Records

Personal data that is no longer needed will be disposed of securely. Personal data that has become inaccurate or out of date will also be disposed of securely, where we cannot or do not need to rectify or update it.

We will shred paper-based records and overwrite or delete electronic files. We may also use a third party to safely dispose of records on IPS's behalf. If we do so, we will require the third party to provide enough guarantees that it complies with data protection law.

Personal Data Breaches

IPS will make all reasonable endeavours to ensure that there are no personal data breaches.

In the unlikely event of a suspected data breach, we will follow the procedure set out in Appendix 1.

When appropriate, we will report the data breach to the ICO within 72 hours.

Staff must ensure they inform their line manager and the DPO immediately on discovering a data breach and make all reasonable efforts to recover the data.
